Girls! Try This! Makes Your Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and straggly, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as perfect and soft as any—it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment, that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

ARREST WOMAN FOR MURDER OF CHILDREN

Charged With Killing Two, But Tells

Police She Killed Four Others.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Ida Leckwold was arrested Tuesday night charged with murdering two of her children. According to the police the woman has not only confessed to killing the two of which she is accused, but four others as well.

Her husband, Ole Leckwold, also was arrested, but later released, the officers being convinced that he was ignorant of the manner in which his children met their deaths. The officers say the woman acknowledged administering quantities of a liquid fly poison, but how she succeeded in getting the children to swallow it she would not tell. The first victim died in 1905 and the last in July, 1913. Leckwold declares that all six of the children died under almost identical circumstances.

The family physician who treated the last two children, says that he was surprised when he found them dead, but believed that death had come from natural causes and made the death certificates accordingly. He ascribed cholera morbus as the cause of death in each instance. Mrs. Leckwold is 32 years old.

LOCAL SPECIALIST MAKES STATEMENT

Says Physicians Should Be Broad Minded Men, Willing to Investigate New Theories, With Unprejudiced Minds. Investigation and Progress the Key to Success.

The man who rides a hobby is usually a tiresome man to encounter. He is generally a narrow minded bigot, who has based his opinions on a limited amount of investigation, in a channel of thought being so constructed as to admit very few ideas aside from those laid down in the code of ethics which govern his pet cult or ism. Such men are a menace to the advance of scientific progress and research, and they become especially dangerous when engaged in the practice of medicine.

They generally limp through life on the mental crutches of some great thinker who has passed away, leaving behind him only such literature as met the requirements of his time, and totally unfit to be applied to present day conditions.

The time was when the practice of medicine consisted of a mass of superstition, the man in medicine being, in the minds of the laity, vested with some great supernatural power which enabled him to cure all manner of diseases.

While the science of medicine has made rapid strides in the last few decades, we still find those engaged in the practice who date their ethics back to the time of Hippocrates, and whose system of practice is based on a method beyond that period, and whose belief and the application of leeches was considered the acme of medical science.

The scientific and successful man of medicine to-day is he who has shaken off the shackles of creeds and dogmas, whose opinions are founded on clear common sense and reason, deduced by careful research into the medical literature of all schools of practice. Such investigation, if unprejudiced, will enable him to cull from each system the best that seems most logical, and give to him that sum of knowledge which should form a concrete basis for an intelligent line of medical practice.

Investigation of this character has a tendency to widen one's scope of thought, temper their attitude toward their fellowmen with justice and charity, and places the mind in that highly receptive mood in which new thoughts are gladly received.

This for many years has been the standard of medical requirement which Dr. Bartlett, the specialist in charge of the United States South Bend Institute has set for himself. He has striven conscientiously to keep to the front of the ever advancing rank of his profession. How well he has succeeded is shown by the letters of his grateful patients as they appear in the daily papers most amply testify.

The Doctor has given his time and thought to the accurate diagnosis and specific treatment of all forms of chronic and nervous diseases. If you are suffering from any derangement of the nervous system or chronic disease of the internal organs, you are now offered an opportunity to consult this competent specialist free of charge. His examination will cost you nothing and the terms of treatment are within the reach of all.

The South Bend Institute is located on the second floor of the Toepf Building, opposite the Post office. Office hours from 12 to 12:30 p. m., 7 to 9 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 12 a. m.

FEDERAL CONTROL IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT FLOODS

Engineers Who Went Over Ohio Districts Find Much of the Loss Was Due to Artificial Contraction.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Immediate legislation to place under federal control the construction of all bridges and their approaches and to prevent encroachments upon channels in tributaries on navigable rivers was recommended in a report submitted to Secy. Garrison Tuesday by the board of army engineers appointed to investigate the floods which devastated the Ohio valley last spring.

Artificial contraction of river channels and their adjacent flood plains, which caused the disaster, the board declared can be prevented only by systematic, comprehensive control by the central government without interference from the state authorities. The report written by Lieut. Col. Francis R. Shunk, and transmitted through Brigadier Gen. Russell, chief of the army engineers, was given general approval by both Secy. Garrison and Gen. Russell.

"The board has been much impressed in its examination," said the report, "by the evils of divided control of the river courses. The obstructions which have been placed along the various streams ought never to have been put there, but since the control of rivers is in the twilight zone between the specters of federal and state authority, it was developed that what was anybody's business was nobody's business, and no effective authority has been exercised by anybody."

These rivers (Ohio tributaries) are feeders of a navigable stream and have an important effect on the regime of the Ohio river and it is the opinion of the board that the authority of the United States should be exercised to prevent encroachments upon them exactly as in the case of navigable streams. The board further urges that immediate steps be taken to exercise such authority, since bridges and other structures are to be rebuilt at once and there is evident danger in several places that they may be rebuilt in an obstructive manner."

Describing the conditions in the flood territory, the report stated: "Building lines have been pushed forward into the streams, bridge abutments have been carried out beyond proper limits, piers so placed as to further choke the channels and dock bridges with insufficient vertical clearance have been used instead of through bridges at proper elevations. On the flood plains, cities and towns have been located as to act as dams and railroad embankments have been carried from bluff to bluff. All these by banking up the water above them caused differences of level which developed currents of high velocity, which caused the unusual damage to the floods, such as destruction of houses and bridges, tearing up streets and loss of life."

Board Approves Plans. The board approved flood prevention plans tentatively worked out from Columbus, O., but pointed out that unless a means of escape for water delivered to the lower reaches were provided the flood would merely be transferred from one point to another.

"This indicates," the report continued, "the necessity of adopting a comprehensive plan for the Scioto valley, to which plan the special projects for the various towns must be accommodated. Columbus, Dayton and Hamilton have provided for their own particular purposes, but so far as the board knows, no comprehensive survey is being made that includes all of the information necessary for solving the problem of flood control of any stream in the Ohio river basin."

The board reported that it was not present prepared to recommend means of preventing the occurrence of high stages in the rivers due to excessive rainfall. A site for a special project was examined, but the board recommended that the work of formulating a plan of flood control be entrusted to the army engineers at Pittsburgh who already have taken up the problem.

ACTING GETS NIGHT'S LODGING AND A HIKE

Man Plays Drunk and Fools Coppers, But is Made to Pay For Duplicity.

William Kennedy, who feigned intoxication Monday night in an effort to acquire a night's lodging at the city hall, was escorted to the city limits Tuesday night and given ten minutes to mingle with the scenery. Five minutes after his release he was arrested by Officer Kennedy and the Lake Shore tracks leading to Chicago were one and the same.

Kennedy reached South Bend Monday night tired, hungry and "broke." Unable to beg or borrow, he conceived the idea of a drunken character with the aim in mind of being arrested. His acting proved so good that the patrol was called and the man dumped in jail. He attempted to continue his act before City Judge Farabaugh Tuesday morning but fell down in his part. He was locked up until night and then after a fatherly lecture by Chief Bunker, Asst. Chief Chappelle and Desk Sergt. Shock he was taken to the outskirts and requested to go.

It was 8 o'clock when Kennedy started. The police estimated that at the speed he was traveling when he left South Bend he arrived in Chicago at ten.

FLAG POLE ON COURT HOUSE HIT BY BIG BOLT

During the electrical storm Tuesday afternoon lightning struck the flag pole on the court house, knocking off the top and splitting the pole.

Small pieces of glass from the dome were blown into the nearby streets. One of them narrowly missed striking Louis Gault, a janitor. The Portage Prairie band was giving a concert in the rotunda when the crash came. Both circuit and superior courts had been adjourned until the band finished.

FRATERNITY WILL HELP THE SCRIBES

President Says Question is One Between Men and Papers—Will Back Member if He is Unable to Fill Contract.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Baseball players who write articles for newspapers of the coming world's series will have the support of the Baseball Players' fraternity. It was announced Tuesday by David L. Fultz, president of the organization. Fultz made a statement regarding the rule laid down by the National commission prohibiting players of the competing teams from writing on the championship games or allowing their names to be signed to articles written by others.

"We do not pass upon the status of the player-author, as in our opinion that matter vests entirely with the players and the paper itself," said Pres. Fultz, referring to the fraternity's attitude toward the National commission's rule. "But if our support should become necessary to enable one of our members to carry out a contract which he has had a perfect right to enter into and which another has entered into with him in good faith, we would back him up to the limit."

Fultz characterized as "absurd" all talk that the series would be called off if players refused to heed the ban against their efforts as writers. The attitude of the players toward the rule will be taken up Monday when the National commission meets here to complete arrangements for the world's series.

Officials of the New York club announced that they have returned $50,000 to the persons who sent the money to buy tickets to the championship games. Under the rules no mail orders for tickets are to be honored and would be purchased must await their turn at the gates. The applications came from all parts of the country. John B. Foster, secretary of the New York club, said indications point to an attendance of 40,000 persons at the opening game here next Tuesday if the weather is fair.

GARBAGE QUESTION IS BIG ONE IN CHICAGO

Officers of Reduction Co. Order City Officials to Quit Delivering Refuse.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Disposal of the garbage in Chicago of more than two million persons became a pregnant problem Tuesday when officers of the Chicago Reduction company told city officers to cease delivering garbage Tuesday.

Several months ago the city expressed a desire to take over the garbage reduction works which threatened to cease operations. The consideration was put in the hands of appraisers and the company agreed to continue until Oct. 1.

The appraisers agreed on $492,500 as a proper price for the plant, but city officers thought that too much value. Conferences Tuesday failed, and the ultimatum of the company followed. City officers met Tuesday to determine how to dispose of the garbage.
